Friends of the Hancock House
Activities

November 21, 2015 Adult Holiday Workshops at the Lower Alloways Creek Fire House in Hancocks Bridge, NJ. Adults will be able to make a Holiday Wreath or centerpiece at on of the two sessions. The first session will be held from 10:00 am to noon and the second session will be held from 1:00 – 3:00 pm. Registration for the Holiday Workshop can be a made by emailing us at hancockhousefohh@gmail.com, stopping by the house or Fort Mott, for more information contact Fort Mott at 856-935-3218. A registration fee of $20.00 is requested and spots are on a first come, first served basis. It is suggested you bring a pair of garden gloves and clippers with you.

The Friends (fohh) fall meeting will be held on November 1, 2015 and will feature William “Larry” Kidder and his presentation entitled, New Jersey Militiamen and their families at War: “A People Harrassed and Exhausted”.

Mr. Kidder served four years in the Navy, holds a master’s degree from Allegheny College in Meadville, PA and is a retired history teacher who taught forty years in both public and private schools.

For more than twenty-five years Mr. Kidder has been a volunteer at the Howell Living History Farm, part of the Mercer County Park System, in Hopewell, New Jersey. Volunteering as a historian, intepretor, webmaster and draft horse teamster.

These experiences has led Mr. Kidder to write and contribute to several books. Mr. Kidder’s first book The Pleasant Valley School Story: A Story of Education in Rural New Jersey. This book was the winner of the 2013 Scholarship and Artistry Award presented by the Country School Association of America.

His second book, A People Harassed and Exhausted: The Story of a New Jersey Militia Regiment in the American Revolution, details the struggles of fighting a war and keeping the family farm going.

Mr Kidder’s third book Farming Pleasant Valley: 250 Years of Life in Rural Hopewell Township, New Jersey was published last year. He has also authored a chapter in the book, The American Revolution in New Jersey: Where the Battle Front meets the Home Front published by the Rutgers University Press.

This program is free and open to the public.
